Mrs. J. I. Hudson, of Portsmouth, Ohio, is here with her friend, Mrs. George W. Baird, until Saturday.

Miss Minnie Groves has returned from a visit to her brother, Rev. Coleman Groves, in Braidentown, Florida, rested and much improved in health. Her pupils at the Graded School gladly welcome her return, each of whom was remembered by the sweet woman with a sea shell souvenir. The Editor is profoundly grateful for the delicious pine apple, the first fruits of her brothers planting, presented to him.

RELIGIOUS.

Because Rev. W. J. Bolin had a severe attack of grip his sermon on the "Church and the Saloon" has been postponed until next Sunday evening.

The official board of the Methodist church have asked Pres. Weber, of Kentucky Wesleyan College, to preach in this city each Sunday morning and evening until the next Conference. He has accepted provided the Bishop gives his approval.

Rev. W. W. Horner preached his farewell sermon to the Baptist saints at Sharpsburg on last Sunday and will at once enter on the duties of his new field at Mayslick. Mr. Horner is a fine preacher deeply in love with his work and is supported by a charming woman, abounding with good common sense and a conscious sense of the duties of a pastors wife. We heartily commend them and the new born daughter to the good people of Mayslick who will love them as they were loved at Sharpsburg.

Change of Firm.
Messrs. Henry Jones and Allen Prewitt have purchased Oldham & Co.'s hardware stock and have taken possession. They are now invoicing, and will continue at same location. Mr. W. F. Oldham will be with the few firm for awhile and Mr. Grubbs is as yet undecided what business will claim his attention. An active business man as he is will not be out of employment long.

The new firm needs no words of introduction or commendation, both are well known in the county, are live wires and will stir up and land a good business to their account. Stock will be enlarged and other departments added and each line pushed to its utmost.

The best tailored suits are made by Guthrie Clo. Co.

A Thing of Beauty.
Sam Greenwade has removed his grocery. Has everything conveniently arranged and it is a thing of beauty. He would have his friends to take a look at his fresh stock. Every item that goes to make up the elegant dinner is in his store. If you can't come, call number 100.

In this issue is the ad of Chinn & Todd, Lexington, Ky. Lady shoppers who visit Lexington know of this firm and the excellence of merchandise carried by them. Read their ad from week to week and see them when in the city.

DEATHS.

JONES.—Frank Jones died at Owingsville from stomach trouble on Saturday aged sixty-five years.

TRIMBLE.—Wash Trimble, an aged colored man, living on Geo. Denton's farm near Aaron's Run, died suddenly on Friday morning.

BOTTS.—The widowed mother of Seth Botts, Sheriff of Bath county, died at her home on Flat Creek near Sharpsburg on Thursday night, March 12, and was buried at Flemingsburg on Friday.

KENNEDY.—Charles Kennedy, aged 66 years, a deacon of the Baptist church at Farmers, died from general debility on Monday, March 8th. His funeral service was conducted by Rev. L. P. V. Williams on Tuesday at the church and his remains were taken to the Barnes graveyard in Bath county. He was a good citizen and leaves a wife and one son.

PETERS.—Miss Iva Dee Peters, daughter of W. R. Peters, Jr., of Bath, Ky., died at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Land, in this city on Friday night, March 13. Since the preceding Saturday she had not been feeling well, but attended school until Wednesday evening when she became seriously sick with appendicitis which proved fatal. She would have been 18 years old in April. She obeyed her Saviour during the meeting at the Christian church in this city held by Pres. Jenkins last year and was a member of the Sunday School. As the burial was to be at Bethel, the funeral service was held on Sunday morning at the church at 9 o'clock, taking the hour usually given to the Sunday School. The service was conducted by Rev. H. D. Clark and was largely attended by the school and her schoolmates from the Public School. The body rests beside that of her mother who fell asleep a few years ago. Heaven will be dearer to those who remain.

McCLELLAND.—On Friday morning at 3 o'clock, after months of pain almost intolerable, Mrs. Robert McClelland's spirit left the body to meet Him she had long loved and served. She was 52 years old, and had been a member of the Baptist church for about thirty-five years, a member of the Mt. Sterling church for about ten years. She leaves a husband and one child, Mrs. Geo. W. Baird. Funeral service was conducted at the home by pastor, W. J. Bolin, assisted by Rev. H. D. Clark, and remains were buried in Machpelah cemetery. Those who were nearest this good woman can best tell of the deeds which were unerring indexes of the heart within. She loved the church of God, and so long as her health would permit she was a faithful attendant and ever lived a life consistent with her profession. A companion to her faithful, dutiful daughter, they were almost inseparable, and when disease fastened its hold everything known to science and skill was employed to restore her health, and when dissolution was inevitable, physicians were kept in constant attendance, that her last moments might be as comfortable as possible. Thus another saint has left hearts heavy and sorrowing to enter upon her reward, and if a life yonder is measured by its perfection and beauty here, hers will be a bright star in God's constellation. Sorrow no more, for the time will soon come when you will be with mother in health and where good-bys never come.

MARTIN.—When the news went out from the sick chamber of Mr. Templeton P. Martin that he had pneumonia and that the end was not far distant, it caused a deep sorrow to brood over our city. Here he had been an active business man since 1866 and his name was associated with business interests. A picture of health, coming dissolution had been disregarded by his friends. The inevitable was present and Monday evening, March 16, 1903, at 7:45 the last breath was drawn, the heart ceased its beatings, and it was said from home to home, Mr. Martin is dead. The funeral service will be conducted at the Southern Presbyterian church where he had been a member for years, this morning at 10 o'clock by his pastor, Rev. John E. Abbott, assisted by Rev. H. D. Clark, of the Christian church and the remains placed in Machpelah, the beautiful city of dead, beside the loved ones gone before, wife and son. Templeton P. Martin was born Sept. 10, 1842, at Greenville, Muhlenburg county, Kentucky. He was married to Miss Mary A. Carter, daughter of George and Mary Carter, of this city, Sept. 26, 1866. To them was born one son on June 12th, 1875, who two and one half years later, was called home and on April 22, 1895, the wife entered on her rewards. Since then he has lived alone over his business room. He began business here about the date of his marriage and by attentiveness and continued effort, he built up the most desirable business of its line in Eastern Kentucky, and when he was attacked seven days ago he had just returned from an Eastern trip where he had purchased a large stock for the approaching season and was looking forward to the openings for which he was preparing. He was one of a family of nine children and leaves a half sister, Mrs. Mary H. Everly, of Island, McLean county, and a large number of nieces and nephews, one of whom, Mrs. Kate Reich, of Louisville, was with him during his last sickness. Mr. Martin served in the federal army and was an adherent to Democratic principles. He leaves a host of friends, who deplore this great loss.
